

FURCATION RECRUITMENT

Role: Production Services – Crew

Description

Furcation is looking to recruit volunteers to join the Production Services team. The role will require you to assist with the setup, operation and tear down of professional grade audio, video and lighting equipment throughout the duration of the convention.

We will also train you in new, essential skills to do this role, so even if you do not entirely match the 'non-essential' requirements below, we would still like to hear from you if you have the confidence to learn and apply yourself to the task!

Please note that you may be required to lift items over 15KGS during setup and tear down.

Requirements

- Good communication and timekeeping skills are essential for this role
- Previous experience working at other events within a production environment is desirable but not essential
- Knowledge of Health and Safety is also highly preferential, as we will be operating in attendee spaces
- Knowledge of BlackMagic, OBS, NDI, Avolites and Midas/Behringer ecosystems is desirable but not essential
